"The Betrothal of Mai Tsung"

Mai Tsung (May Sung): "In love! Never! Why in China we do not even talk of such things." Margaret: "Beware! This is America!"

Mai Tsung had been warned against that amorous tendency of actually falling in love in an American style which is entirely unspoken of in Chinese customs. Her rebellion against infant betrothal, and longing for America, proves to be a stone wall between her and her parents who tenaciously hold to old traditions. After sealing this obstacle between her and her folks Mai Tsung arrives in America to attend an American college where things really begin to happen when she meets Mr. Walter Li who has preceded her to America and they meet for the first time.

Oh, well, such things never happen in China (9) and to see how old traditions of China are torn down you will want to see "The Betrothal of Mai Tsung," sponsored by the Missionary Education Movement of the United States and Canada and presented by the Brethren Young People's Department at 8:10 p.m. sharp on Friday, March 24th, in the Church of the Brethren, admission 25c and 15c.

P.T.A. Meets at Mrs. C. E. Johnston's

The P.T.A. held its regular meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Johnston on Monday, March 13 with 14 members and one visitor present.

The main feature of the evening, being a very enlightening talk on Communicable Disease and Play-Ground Supervision by Miss Davidson, District Nurse. Miss Davidson emphasized the fact that very few parents realize what serious results can occur through neglect of Communicable disease and the endangering of the health of the public in general.

Play ground Supervision should, if possible, be carried out in every school. The influence of such supervision is greatly marked in the child and wonderful results, physically and mentally can be obtained by such endeavors.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. Hall. A social evening has been planned, and all members are

Two Motor Accidents on Highway

Last Sunday, about 11 a.m., a motor accident occurred on the gravel at the bridge crossing the West Arrowwood Creek, about 5 miles west of Robinson's service station on the High River Highway. Mr. Gray was driving down from Calgary in a new Chevrolet car, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Copeland. Mrs. Copeland is a sister of Miss Mary Mitchell of the Bank of Nova Scotia. When approaching the bridge, which is not easily seen when going east, the car was struck by the iron bridge with great force, throwing Mr. Copeland out the door, and seriously injuring the driver who was rushed to Calgary General Hospital, where he died the same night. Mr. Copeland was cut about the face with glass and Mrs. Copeland's face was also cut with glass. With two ribs cracked. Both are progressing favorably. The car was badly wrecked.

On Monday, about noon, at the same place, a car from Calgary, occupied by Mr. Yeats by Gaylen Jones' Ford car. It passed a little sand on the members who called on their bachelor neighbors for transportation to the meetings.

The bridge and highway are under the supervision of the Provincial Government, not under the Dinton Municipality. Since the accidents, gravel has been put on the ice and a bumper signal erected.

Invited to attend:
After the business transactions were concluded the hostess served a dainty lunch.

U.F.W.A. Banquet Was Largely Attended

112 Were Seated at the Tables

The basement of the Church of the Brethren appeared on a delightful flower garden on the night of March 16. The Second when the Arrowwood U.F.W.A. celebrated their tenth anniversary and annual party with a most successful banquet, to which all present and past members of the U.F.W.A. and their husbands were invited. The tables were decorated according to seasons and each place marked with a seasonal flower.

The head table was centered with a three-tiered birthday cake, beautifully decorated and flanked with ten pink tapers. Places were marked with unique place cards and favors in the form of pink rosesbuds were at each place.

The invocation was pronounced by the Rev. J. S. Culp. He paid tribute to the work of the U.F.W.A. in this community during the past ten years. Mrs. R. E. McBride, in an opening address, urged those present to take an earnest interest in economic affairs of today. She stressed the importance of working for each other's good towards the goal of equal rights for all and special privileges for none.

The toast to the husbands was proposed by Mrs. G. Forest Kemper in a very gracious manner. She had a little rhyming verse as a tribute to the husbands of each season. The reply was given by Mr. Roy McBride and he took the opportunity to pass a few compliments to the ladies.

The toast to the U.F.W.A. was proposed by M. B. Ward, who has taken a keen interest in U.F.W.A. work since the days of the Farmers' Equity Society. In asking the men to join in the toast he referred to the U.F.W.A. organization as the best in Alberta. He praised them for the charitable work they have carried on along with their other work.

Mrs. Jenni John responded in a delightful way and mentioned the effort put forth by the officers of the organization.

They called on Mr. Edith Hill for a few interesting remarks concerning the early experiences of the members of the Local in getting to meetings. He told of the days when the first president and first secretary drove a team of horses. They were known to take as long as three days to go and return from a meeting. He gave some very amusing stories of seeing the ladies wading knee deep in mud pushing out Gaylen Jones' Ford car. It passed a little sand on the members who called on their bachelor neighbors for transportation to the meetings.

Summary of Ten Years' Work

A brief summary of the ten years' work of the organization was prepared by Mrs. R. E. Williams and read by Mrs. Gaylen Jones. Since 1923 the U.F.W.A. has had over $3,800. They have assisted with several local enterprises and are still carrying on in spite of adverse conditions.

Greetings and messages from members unable to be present were read by Mrs. M. H. Ward.

Mrs. Norman, with a few well chosen words, presented a shower bouquet of carnations to Mrs. McBride, organizer and first president of the Arrowwood U.F.W.A. During the past ten years she has served in the first secretary offices and at the present time is our Secretary. We feel that we owe much of our success to her efficiency and tireless energy. Flowers were also presented to Mrs. Geo. Campbell (of Calgary) first secretary, to Mrs. R. E. Williams and Mrs. Gaylen Jones who have had ten years of continuous and worth-while service in the local.

The toasts were interspersed with delightful musical selections arranged by Mrs. J. M. Veins and Mrs. J. C. MacLeod.

At the conclusion of the banquet the tables were cleared and all joined in a grand march. The crowd was then divided into groups and given a chance to show their loyalty in planning a stunt, suggestive of the month they represented. Many novel ideas came to light and caused much merriment. After great deliberation the judges Paul Norton, Rev. J. S. Culp and Dr. Alexander, awarded the Junior group the honors. Words fail to describe that remarkable wedding scene and the man who pronounced the fatal words in his elements. Imagine a man with his austerity and poise belonging to a construction company. Mrs. Mackie, leader of the group, received the prize.

Our local takes this opportunity of thanking all those who helped to make the banquet a success. We are very grateful to the ten girls of the Senior group of the Junior U.F.A. who did their part so well. We are also indebted to the Board of the Church of the Brethren for their kindness in allowing us the use of the basement. Never before in Arrowwood has there been better evidence of a true co-operative spirit.

"Closed Lips" to be Presented on Sat., April 1st

Should an innocent man upon leaving prison, seek to clear his good name and seek to punish the thermal criminal, especially when the exposure will bring sorrow upon his own family? This is John Clay's dilemma, upon being pardoned after serving a term for murder. His son, Bart, being embittered by the long humiliation of being a convict's son is all for the exposure until he learns that the man to suffer from it will be his beloved foster father and her beloved foster fiancée whereupon he is content to let sleeping dogs lie. But Star the pathetic little wife of Cinder Alley, unwittingly supplies the clue to the murder mystery thereby lifting the burden of undeserved sorrow from sorely distressed hearts and making possible a happy story ending.

This in short is the story enclosed in the play "Closed Lips" to be presented in the School Auditorium, Saturday evening, April 1st.

Literary Society Play Well Received

Winning high applause, the Arrowwood High School are to be congratulated on the excellent program submitted and presented to the public Friday last at the Arrowwood School. Beyond any degree of doubt, whatever, the play "Fickle Fortune," as presented by the students of the school brings much honor and credit to the actresses, actors, and especially the director Mr. C. E. Johnston. The task of selecting a cast is a difficult one but the students as chosen for "Fickle Fortune" could in no way have been excelled.

Following are those taking part:
Mrs. Samuel Warren — Ruby Ward.
Mrs. Mary Warren — Mildred Kaufman.
Roxanna Blossom — old family servant — Ruth Brubaker.
Antoinette (Tony) Warren — Marjorie Leonard.
Beant Allan — Floyd Cary.
Lily (a maid) — Vera Hosketh.
Maggie (a maid) — Edna Beagle.
Coppers (a butler) — Arthur Saunders.
Emmerson Hawley — Clarence Norton.

Sadie Tweed, Margaret Richards, Mrs. Merry — Both Ellis Stevens. (a butler) — Teddy Weiss.

The intermissions between the acts were filled with a delightful duet by the Misses J. MacLeod and Mildred Irwin. Piano duet by Florence Holland and Eileen Christensen, and two readings by J. MacLeod. The students spent much time and energy preparing the play but a goodly crowd supported the school by turning out to witness the presentation. The net sum of $48.00 was realized.

School Notes

Friday evening, March 10th, the play "Fickle Fortune" was presented by the Arrowwood High School Literary Society in the school. A large crowd attended and everyone seems to feel that the play was well worth seeing. The program for the evening was as follows:

O Canada.
Act 1, Scene 1 Fickle Fortune
Duet, Jean MacLeod

Act 1, Scene 2, Fickle Fortune
Recitation, Jean MacLeod.

Act 2 of Fickle Fortune.
Fiona Duet, Florence Holland
and Eileen Christensen.

Act 3, Fickle Fortune.
God Save the King.

The proceeds from the play amounted to $47.25. This includes expenses.

The money will go into the funds of the Literary Society.

Thursday afternoon, Feb. 9,
there were no classes.

The High School put on a complete dress rehearsal for the benefit of all of the school children.
The afternoon was spent to good advantage for not only did everyone enjoy it but this rehearsal with an audience attending was extremely beneficial to the players. Many thought that this act would spoil the attendance on the following evening but it was quite evident that nothing was lost by it.

Attendance, due to illness, has been poor in Miss Spencer's room lately.

Why Not a Colonel?

What we need as much as anything—and can be supplied, even in these depressing times, is a Colonel.
We have in our midst a leading citizen, who first settled on the reserve in 1912 and has always been identified with any movement for the betterment of the town and district—therefore, for this important post we now recommend to you, none other than Colonel Amos L.
Ingraham.

One of the first things you notice when you look at the NEW FORD V-8, is its size. It's a big car in every sense of the word.

The cheapest way to put in your crop, and for best results, is to use a TILLER COMBINE, which tills your soil and seeds in one operation, over and over all is over. They are now made in all sizes. We have some bargains in these machines that you had better get before you start spring operations.

How about that overhaul job for your tractor or car? You had better consult our mechanic, Tommy Thompson, so that you will not have to wait when field operations begin.

"What shall I do?" wailed the sweet young thing; "I am engaged to a man who just cannot bear children."
"Well," replied the kindly old lady, "you mustn't expect too much of a husband."
